

Subject: Fines and Recovery of Overdue Materials

Purpose:

To encourage a timely return of library materials, the Montgomery-Floyd Regional Library Board of Trustees has established fines for overdue materials and any costs related to replacing materials that have been lost or damaged. Beginning June 1, 2018, fines will not accrue on overdue children's and teen material.

Policy:

The library will attempt to recover overdue materials through the following steps:

- A first notice when items are two weeks overdue;
- A second notice when items are four weeks overdue;
- A bill for the replacement costs when items are six weeks overdue;
- If patrons are still delinquent after eight weeks, and have a total of $25 in unreturned material, they will be turned over to a collection agency;
 - A non-negotiable, collection agency processing fee of $15.00 will be charged;
 - Patrons must return materials and settle fines to clear their library accounts;
- Library cards are blocked from use for checkout of physical items when fines total $10.00 or until fine balance totals zero if account has been sent to collection. Blocks do not prevent patrons from use of resources in the library, use of library computers and wifi, or use of e-books and other e-resources.

Library staff will provide sufficient information to allow any individual to settle unpaid fines or fees on any library account. However, authors, titles, or subjects of lost or overdue materials will not be discussed without presentation of the account's card.

- ❖ MFRL would prefer that patrons pay for a lost or damaged item. However, if a patron brings in a replacement item, it must be brand new and have an exact ISBN match with the lost item.
- ❖ Staff and patron may negotiate any non-standard situation.
- ❖ Minor damage* means the item is still usable and will continue to circulate; staff may negotiate a cost from $1.00-$4.00 based on the damage and their judgment.
