

What am I? (POEM)

If I am in the past and present, but will be gone in the future,

Will I be remembered as a part of every person?

If I am in the core of moons, but never found in planets,

Will I only be a small part of an astronaut's journey?

If I am the beginning of everything and the end of time and space,

Will I be considered well-liked by being around everyone?

If I am at the beginning of the middle and the middle of the climax,

Will my story be considered one-in-a-million?

What am I?
